Grand Opening ...

photographs will be taken of the children Friday, while Chucko the Clown will make his appearance Saturday starting at 10 a.m.
GallenKamp's family shoe stores are located all up and down the west coast and in some of the midwestern states, Hoyer stated.
Benson's dress shop, formerly located at 1271 Sartori, has been established in Torrance 10 years, according to Mrs. Blanche Macau, store manager.

The store will feature a wide variety of merchandise, including numerous and new name brands in every line.
Prizes
Orchids will be given away to the ladies during the two days of grand opening festivities. Two prizes—a topper and a dress—will also be given away Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. Macau has been with the Benson store, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Benson, for the past nine years. Mrs. Macau has lived in Torrance since 1924, having gone through grade school and high school here. She has managed the store

Civic Center ...

Ingram and being considered by the Torrance Police association.
"We were thinking of donating funds from our yearly dances for setting up such a center," Ingram explained to the Torrance Press. "Some of the money goes for other youth work but we still have some for six years. Co-workers include Miss Mary T. Henry and Mrs. Marjorie Clark, sales girls who have been with the store six years each; Mrs. Eulle McNabb and Mrs. Ruby Stanford. Benson's and GallenKamp's are conveniently located across the street from a spacious city parking lot.

surplus funds."
Ingram said their thinking is that the city would donate the property for such a center and that the money for building it would either be raised by the association through various projects or by means of a bond issue placed before the voters.
"If the money is raised by the community our association could assume responsibility for furnishing the center," Ingram stated.
